

Creating Different Conditions

Men As Peacemakers / Men and Masculine Folks Network
 R3 2018-2019
 $50,000

Project will create, launch, and distribute community and statewide a series of nine culturally specific sexual violence prevention videos for each of our target racial/ethnic communities in Minnesota: Hmong, Latino, Native American/Indigenous, African American/Black, queer folks and White. These video series will serve as a launching point for a 'train the trainer' series of culturally relevant engaging men trainings.

Communities

Adults	Indigenous/Native/Tribal
African American	Latinx
Asian-Pacific Islander	LGBTQ2I
Boys	Men
Communities of color	Non-binary
	Survivors

Products

Curriculum: Train the Trainers
 Resource: Culturally specific sexual violence prevention videos

System:

Therapeutic/mental health

Level:

National

Learning Circles

Hosted a Summit on February 21-22, 2019 to build a sense of community statewide for men, boys, and masculine folks invested in the issues of domestic violence, sexual violence, sex trafficking and other forms of gender violence. Hosted informal community screenings of the videos.

Provide Resources

Created, launched, and distributed community and statewide series of nine culturally specific sexual violence prevention videos for racial/ethnic communities in Minnesota: Hmong, Latino, Native American/Indigenous, African American/Black, queer folks and White.

Train & Educate

These video series serve as a launching point for a 'train the trainer' series of culturally relevant engaging men trainings.

Measure Impact

Evaluated and documented the production and creation of the statewide video campaign series in prep for a train the trainer model.

What's next:

The Men and Masculine Folks Network will continue to refine these videos further.

Contact:

Pheng Thao, Statewide Coordinator
 612-217-0865
pheng@menaspeacemakers.org