Statement from RALIANACE on Roy Moore's announcement to run for the United States Senate in 2020

"Roy Moore's announcement is a direct affront to survivors of sexual violence and the people of Alabama. His attempt to re-enter public life without taking ownership of the irreparable harm he has done should be a reminder that, now more than ever, we need to hold accountable those who use their positions of power to exploit and abuse the most vulnerable in our society.

"Not too long ago, a critical mass of voters in Alabama made a powerful statement: sexual violence and abuse won't be tolerated from public officials. We are in a watershed moment for sexual violence prevention and survivors and women across the country will be counting on the voters of Alabama to make sure we don't go back."
